

BAPP-Lithuania 2005 Grant List

External Environment

NGO Information and Support Center, Vilnius	$10,000
For administrative expenses
For institutional development (update the status and mission of the organization, revise a strategic plan, and improve the institutional governance) and monitoring and advocacy of NGO-related legal improvements and consultations with government and parliament	$35,000

Institutional Development

INSTITUTIONAL GRANTS TO NATIONAL AND LOCAL NGOS

Save the Children Lithuania, Vilnius	$17,000
For constituency development, and reform of the organization's country network
Women's Issues Information Center, Vilnius	$17,000
For administrative expenses and the organization of a fundraising campaign
Center for Civic Initiatives, Vilnius	$14,000
For administrative expenses and the development of fee-based services
Lithuanian National Consumer Federation, Vilnius	$12,000
For administrative expenses, training, and the development of a strategic plan
Elderly People's Association "Gabija," Kaunas	$10,000
For administrative expenses, membership development, and a campaign relating to the national policy on elderly people
Lithuanian Green Movement, Kaunas	$11,000
For administrative expenses, and the development of programs and services
NGO Coalition "Jungtys," Vilnius	$8,000
For administrative expenses, membership development, program planning and public relation campaigns
Klaipeda NGO Information Center	$8,000
For administrative expenses, the finalization of a business plan, service negotiations with Klaipeda municipality and the planning of fee-based services for NGOs
Vilnius Women's Crisis Center	$8,000
For administrative expenses and development of a work plan to approach potential donors
"Children-Part of Society," Vilnius	$9,000
For administrative expenses and development of income-generating initiatives

Vilnius University Law Clinics	$6,000
For administrative expenses, training, development of institutional reform, and a work plan to approach potential donors
Youth Psychological Aid Center, Vilnius	$8,000
For administrative expenses, development of a marketing plan, and a long-term financial plan
Transparency International, Vilnius	$10,000
For administrative expenses and an update of the fundraising plan
Lithuanian Scouts, Kaunas	$7,000
For administrative expenses, the implementation of a membership development strategy, and fundraising from businesses
Organization for Supervision of Conditionally Discharged Persons, Vilnius	$7,000
For administrative expenses, services development, and training in fundraising from corporate and individual donors
Human Rights Monitoring Institute, Vilnius	$6,000
For administrative expenses and development of a fundraising strategy
Civil Society Institute, Vilnius	$7,000
For administrative expenses and development of a fundraising strategy
Health Policy Center, Vilnius	$6,000
For administrative expenses and development of a strategic plan
Lithuanian and U. S. Initiatives, Vilnius	$7,000
For professionalization of volunteer work, mobilization of human resources in fundraising, and launching a fundraising campaign outside Lithuania
Institute for Social Ethics, Kaunas	$4,000
For administrative expenses, the development of skills and knowledge of working on the EU level, and improvement of fundraising capacities
Lithuanian Fund for Nature, Vilnius	$5,000
For a review of the organization's legal status, structure, development of a fundraising plan, and fundraising from businesses
Union of Kaunas Social NGOs, Kaunas	$7,000
For administrative expenses, membership development, and a strategic plan with primary emphasis on the organization's financial needs
Women's Activities Innovation Center, Siauliai	$3,000
For board development and a review of the organization's strategic plan

Elektrenai Center for Community Initiatives	$2,490
For membership development and training in fundraising
Alytus NGO Information Center	$2,000
For administrative expenses, services development, and a roundtable to determine how to best serve local NGOs
Siauliai NGO Confederation	$2,200
For the expansion of the organization’s work on the regional level and services development
Alytus Community Foundation	$4,813
For the implementation of a 2% tax facility campaign, development of the organization’s strategy, and improvement of public relations
Visaginas Community Foundation	$5,612
For administrative expenses, improvement of institutional governance policies and practices, and development of the organization’s long-term strategy plan and investment policy
J. L. Vynner Fund, Klaipeda	$4,000
For improvement of public relations, development of fundraising skills, and a related strategic plan
North Lithuanian Foundation, Siauliai	$3,000
For administrative expenses, fundraising, and development of the organization’s strategy
TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
Civil Society Development Foundation (CSDF) Hungary	$10,000
For training in fundraising, including income-generating mechanisms, public relations, and the organization of advocacy campaigns
Development of Indigenous Philanthropy
The program focused on the institutional development of two pilot community foundations and the development of a philanthropy task force, a group of NGO professionals involved in the planning of a new philanthropic organization.
Charities Aid Foundation–Russia	$25,000
For assistance to BAPP’s philanthropy development initiative in Lithuania
Samogitia Community Foundation	$10,000
For the improvement of grant-giving strategies, public relations, and initial steps in endowment building

Utena Region Community Foundation	$10,000
For the improvement of grant-giving strategies, public relations, and the strengthening of its institutional governance policies and practices
SMALL GRANTS TO NGOs REPRESENTED IN THE PHILANTHROPY TASK FORCE
Grants were made to the following organizations for the development of public relations skills, establishment of contacts with local businesses, networking with potential individual donors, and the collection of data on philanthropic developments
Public Institution “Rafaelis,” Vilnius	$1,000
For a strategy to approach potential corporate donors
Visaginas Community Foundation	$1,000
For the organization of two roundtables with local businesses to support local NGOs
J. L. Vynner Charity Fund, Klaipeda	$500
For the promotion of the 2% tax facility through a website www.aciujums.lt
North Lithuania Foundation, Siauliai	$1,050
For a brochure on the history of philanthropy in Northern Lithuania
“Children–Part of Society,” Vilnius	$1,000
For development of promotional materials for the organization
Institute for Social Ethics, Kaunas	$750
For development of a database of potential corporate donors
Spiritual Guidance Center, Klaipeda	$1,000
For an analysis of the organization’s image in society and development of a strategy for improvement
Alytus Community Foundation	$1,000
For a survey on philanthropy in Alytus region
Association of Community Organizations of Kazlu Ruda	$1,000
For networking with local businesses
Vilnius Young Liberal Association, Vilnius	$940
For the development of a public relations strategy
Kaunas Women Employment Information Centre	$900
For a feasibility study on the potential of women’s philanthropy in Lithuania
Support Fund for Communities, Civic Initiatives, and Healthy Lifestyles	$780
For a strategic plan

Charity Fund “Lithuania–U.S. Initiatives”	$1,550
For a presentation of the Food Bank, a new philanthropic model in Lithuania, and a survey on Lithuanian private foundations
Social Economy Institute	$1,200
For an analysis of philanthropic traditions in Lithuania
	$1,300
Samogitia Community Foundation
For the development of a strategic plan for the promotion of philanthropy in Lithuania
Utena Region Community Foundation
For the promotion of philanthropy in Utena county	$1,500